

Frequently Asked Questions:

When will the Catholic High School Placement Test be given in academic year 2017-18?

For Catholic High Schools located within the Diocese of Joliet, the Catholic High School Placement Test will be given on Saturday, December 2, 2017 at each Catholic high school in the Diocese of Joliet. Check the websites of individual schools for information specific to that school and location.

Where should a student take the Catholic high school placement test?

It is important to take the placement test at the school where the student wishes to enroll in the fall. Taking the placement test at a different school may delay or prevent full consideration for school placement. Contact the high school or visit their website for further information.

Do the Catholic high schools in the Diocese of Joliet use the same placement test?

Yes. The High School Placement Test (HSPT) Placement is used in all schools. Individual schools may offer exam preparation workshops. Please visit the school websites for more information.

Do students register for the test?

Yes. Schools require that students register before the test date at the school where they wish to enroll. Information about registration and test fees is available on the individual school websites.

What if a student misses the December 2, 2017 placement test date?

Contact the school where the student wishes to enroll to inquire about make-up test dates. Each school decides when make-up test dates are offered. Information about make-up test dates is available on school websites.

How do Catholic high schools make student placement decisions?

Each Catholic high school establishes its own practices and procedures to make student placement decisions. School officials review several indicators of student performance in order to ensure student success, including but not limited to entrance exam test scores, academic records, grade school report cards, and grade school teacher recommendations.
